Turin, May 20. N. S.

MR. Chetwynd, the Queen of Great Britain's Envoy-Extraordinary to the Duke of Savoy, is arrived here, and has been to wait on his Royal Highneſs at the Venerie. The Count de Provana is to ſet out on Friday next for the Court of Vienna, whither he is ſent in the Quality of Envoy-Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, to make his Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the Emperor. On the 14th Inſtant his Royal Highneſs enter'd into the 45th Year of his Age, and receiv'd the Compliments of the Chief Officers of the Court, and all the Foreign Miniſters on that Occaſion. The Regiment of Guards commanded by the Marquis d'Andorno was drawn out before the Palace, where they made a tripple Diſcharge; as did likewiſe all the Cannon from the Ramparts and Citadel; and in the Evening the Princes were entertain'd with Fireworks at the Venerie. It is ſaid the Enemy have been carrying on a private Correſpondence with ſome Perſons in Coni, and had drawn out ſome Troops in order to ſurprize that Place; but that their Deſigns have been fruſtrated by a ſeaſonable Diſcovery.

Vienna, May 27. N. S. Our Letters from Hungary adviſe, that the Fortreſs of Ungwar was ſurrendred the 15th Inſtant; but that Prince Ragotzki having been informed of the late Emperor's Death, had ſent his Command to the Governor of Mongatz, not to deliver up that Place 'till he was compell'd by Neceſſity, by which means the Prince will have time to try if his Affairs may be brought to receive a more favourable turn from the preſent Conjuncture. The Emiſſaries of France give out, that the Prince has lately received conſiderable Remittances from thence, and that the French King has engag'd to furniſh him with Monthly Supplies, that he may be the better enabled to inſiſt upon his own Terms, and encouraged to hold out to the laſt Extremity. He was before Treating with the Czar of Muſcovy, and Propoſals were made for putting two thouſand Men, that ſtill remain under his Command, into his Czariſh Majeſty's Service; but ſince he has receiv'd Advice of the Emperor's Death, and been tempted by theſe Overtures from France, he has appointed a Conference with Count Eſterhaſi, who has the like number of Men at his Diſpoſal, and they are to ſee what remains to be done, in order to continue the Troubles in Hungary, and prevent, if poſſible, the good Effects of the late Accommodation; but as thoſe Forces are too weak to anſwer their Purpoſes, and the Town of Mongatz is cloſely block'd up by General Palfi, this Court is under no Apprehenſions of any further Diſturbances from thence; but look on that Affair as too firm and ſecure to be in any danger of a Relapſe. Monſieur Bruinynx, having receiv'd an Order from the States to that purpoſe, has given this Regency an Aſſurance, in the Queen of Great Britain's Name, of her Majeſty's Concurrence with their High Mightineſſes, in the Reſolutions they had taken to ſtand by the Houſe of Auſtria, and promote his Catholick Majeſty's Intereſt at the enſuing Election. The Count de Wackerbarth, the King of Poland's Miniſter to this Court, ſet out from hence this Morning. It is thought he has receiv'd Orders from his Maſter to meet his Majeſty on his way to Poland. The Chevalier Dini, the Grand Duke of Tuſcany's Envoy-Extraordinary, is come hither, to make his Maſter's Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the late Emperor. Count Wratiſlaw being appointed to aſſiſt as his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſador and Plenipotentiary at the Election of an Emperor, is preparing to ſet out for Francfort accordingly.

Cologne, June 5. N. S. They write from Francfort, that the Army of the Empire is encamped at Munkenſtrum, and is daily reinforc'd by the Arrival of the Troops that are marching thither from all Parts. The Regiments of Savoy and Lobkowitz, conſiſting of two thouſand Horſe, are expected in the Dutchy of Wirtemberg this Week, in order to join it; and the Duke of Wirtemberg, who has the Command of this Army during the Abſence of the Prince of Savoy, has ordered Entrenchments to be thrown up, and ſecur'd the Avenues of the Camp, to prevent any Attempts from the French. His Highneſs went the firſt Inſtant under a Guard of Horſe to Selingen, to view the ſituation of the Enemy, who have not yet made any Movements. Mareſchal Harcourt has been for ſome time at Strasbourg, and the Mareſchal de Bezons has his Quarters at Druſenheim. The French Army is ſaid to conſiſt of thirty eight Battalions, and as many Squadrons; and they ſtill give out, that they ſhall be in a Condition to paſs the Rhine in a few Days time; but ſuch Care has been taken by our Generals, that ſhou'd they be able to put their Deſign in Execution, it will have no other effect, than the conſuming the Forage, and raiſing ſome Contributions in the Marquiſate of Baden-Dourlach. Two thouſand Recruits for the German Troops in Flanders arrived in the Neighbourhood of this Place on Sunday laſt, and are at preſent encamp'd between Merzem and Nichlen, from whence they will ſpeedily continue their March towards Brabant. Our Letters from the North adviſe, that the King of Sweden was retired from Bender, having been obliged to it by a Mutiny among the Janizaries. They make no mention of the Motions of the Turks; but aſſure us, on the contrary, that his Czariſh Majeſty will be in ſuch a forwardneſs, as to be able to prevent them, and be before 'em in the Field. Theſe Letters add, that the Czar has declared that ſo ſoon as the Interview between his Majeſty and the King of Poland is over, he will without delay put himſelf at the Head of his Army.

Bruſſels, June 13. N. S. Upon Advice that Mareſchal Villars has made a Detachment towards Germany, the Imperial and Palatine Auxiliaries, which ſerve on this ſide, have received Orders to March back to the Rhine; and the Prince of Savoy, who returns with them, has appointed the Imperial Commiſſary, who is at preſent in this Place, to make Preparations for their March thro' theſe Provinces.

Oſtend, June 15. N. S. On Tueſday the 9th Inſtant his Grace the Duke of Marlborough finiſhed the Review of the Army with that of the Foot in the Pay of the States-General; the ſeveral National Corps of which appear'd in very good Order. On the 10th the Forces commanded by the
